HOW TO BE COOL... AT FIRST FRIDAY

Is it your first First Friday? With these helpful hints, you'll be a First Friday pro in no time.

- ◆ Don't touch the art, and definitely don't steal the art. Most art is available for purchase so that you can touch it whenever you please... from the comfort of your own home.
- ◆ Don't go just for the booze. It's all about the art, man. If you do partake in a light snack or beverage, stay on the lookout for the tip jar!
- ◆ Be aware of your surroundings. Pay attention when in doorways and crowded halls, as those tend to be the worst place to abruptly stop and catch up with your buddy.

It's pretty simple. Just be a good person and enjoy the art!

ART

Thick as Thieves | Tugboat Gallery

Above Gomez Art Supply, you'll find Tugboat Gallery, showing "Thick as Thieves", which features Rachel Buse, Jennifer Leatherby and Tiffany Sinnott. UNL grad Buse is a sculptor in Des Moines. Her work often critiques the physical weight of emotions. Leatherby is a painter, illustrator, installation and performance artist. Her work frequently speaks to oppressed groups. Sinnott is a multimedia artist whose work centers on space, action and ethics. "Thick as Thieves" is her first show in Lincoln. The multimedia installations relate to real-life realism and abstraction.

OUT OF THIS WORLD

Out of This World | Turbine Flats Project

Turbine Flats will host a "Fanciful First Friday" with art, food, drink and conversation. Moran's Liquor Works will offer craft beer pairings with Girl Scout cookies to benefit ArtVenture, which is the Girl Scouts Spirit of Nebraska's annual fundraising event. Chris Ralston, Arden Nixon, Carl Dumicich, Justin Lewis and Danny Reneau will be the featured artists. Special guests from ConStellation9: Con 9 from Outer Space will speak during the event. Turbine Flats encourages guests to attend dressed in costumes in honor of ConStellation 9.
